

Welcome to Shakargarh City

Shakargarh was the gateway of Mughals entering Gurdaspur and going to Delhi. Shakargarh is also the gateway to Kashmir and regarded as the rest point for travelers. The town contains the tomb of Hazrat Khawaja Abdul Salam Chisti. He converted a large number of Hindus and Sikhs to Islam before independence. His tomb is situated west bank of River Ravi that is a historical place. Before the independence of Pakistan, Shakargarh town was the headquarters of Shakargarh Tehsil, which formed part of Gurdaspur district (now in India). Under the Radcliffe Award, Shakargarh tehsil was transferred to Pakistan and attached with Sialkot District. However with the creation of Narowal District on 1 July 1991, Shakargarh became tehsil headquarters included as one of its tehsils.

Parameter	Value
District	Narowal
TMA Headquarter	Shakargarh
Location	32°16'0N and 75°10'0E.
No. of Union Councils	40
Languages	Urdu, Punjabi
Population (2011)	85,864
Sex Ratio	100
No. of Households	6857
Household size	7.4
Growth Rate (%)	4.13
Area (Acres) 2011	16351.1
Density/sq.km (2011)	40
Important Crops	wheat, rice, grain and barley
Industry	Cottage and small industry

